Ogden, Jan. 5 .- In the district court this morning before Judge Rolapp, William Brown, who was found guilty of for participating in the killing of a Chinaman named Gee Jam, was brought in for sentence. His attorney, R. S. Farnsworth, was present and filed a bill of exceptions and moved for a new trial. The court promptly denied the motion and ordered the prisoner to stand up for sentence. The court then stated to the prisoner that he had been found guilty by a jury of his peers, of murder in the second degree, for the killing of Gee Jam on the night of May 7, 1902, and asked him is he had anything to say as to why the sentence of the law should not be pro-The prisoner replied, The court in passing sentence remarks. that the trial jury had in their verdic recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court, which recommendation he regarded it as his duty to ignore. He could see no reason why a man who had murdered a poor inoffensive China man in cold blood should be given any nercy whatever. The court tenced the prisoner to 40 years at hard labor in the state prison. The prisoner was removed to his cell in the county When interviewed the only thing he had to say was: gave me plenty. The board of county commissioners met this morning at 70 and transacted a small amount of business. George Matson appeared before in behalf of himself and Mr. Kercher who are applying for a franchise to build an electric ratiroad through Og-den canyon, and asked that action on their petition be deferred for two weeks. Just why this action was taken in the matter is not known, but is believed to be the result of some misunderstanding between the promoters and the Utah Light & Power company. Manager Wade of the latter company was present and said the continuance would suit his people very well. Chairman Stanford submitted a report showing the condition of the finances of the county, and the excellent work done by the commissioners during the past two years, and explained the necessity of certain legislation in behalf of Weber county. On motion of retiring Commissioner Lyman Skeen an adjournment was taken sine die. The new county board of commissioners, consisting of Joseph Stanford, William G. Wilson and Jesse Fowers, met and organized, Mr. Stanford being elected chairman, a position which he has filled with marked ability during the past two years. Meeting then adjourned till

Very few changes have been made in the county officers, the most of thos holding positions having been re-elected. Among the changes which have been made are: In the board of coun-ty commissioners, Mr. Skeene retires and Mr. Fowers takes his place. Mr. Layne, who has been sheriff for four years, turns over the keys of his office to Mr. Joseph Bailey, the newly elected sheriff. John Gibson, who has been as-sessor during the last term, retires in favor of Mr. Edwin Dix. County Attorney Halvorsen is succeeded by E. T. Hulanski. The retiring gentlemen have made most excellent records in their several offices, all being men of integrity and ability. MISSIONARY REUNION.

A reunion of the Salmon river missionaries and those of the colonies of Idaho will be held at the Second ward meetinghouse in Ogden at 11 a.m., Jan. 20. Changes in County Offices.

Corridors of Joint Building Swarmed With Humanity This Morning Awaiting the Time for Installation of New Officers-Anderson Chairman of County Board and Jones Reappointed Superintendent of Infirmary.

There were very material signs of hereby revoked. This resolution shall ife in and around the City and County building today, due to the change in the administration of a number of state and county officers. The corridors of the basement and the third floor were crowded with spectators and officials and deputies awaiting the hour of 12 o'clock when the changes were made. About 10 o'clock this morning County Clerk James corralled all the new officials in his office and administered to them the oath of office, so all were in readiness for the hour of the change.

M'CARTY TAKES THE OATH. The supreme court was the first to n.ske the change. Just before 10 o'clock Chief Justice Baskin performed the first act of his office by administering the oath of office to Associate Justice William M. McCarty. By tenure of office, Justice Baskin who now has the short est term to serve of any of the justices of the supreme court, became Chief justice of that body. The court imme diately convened and heard several informal matters and then adjourned until Thursday, Jan. 15, at 10 o'clock.

NEW COUNTY BOARD.

Promptly at 12 o'clock the retiring county commissioners, Horne and Harker, turned over the keys to their office and desk to the new commissioners-Wilson and Standish. The old | board had arranged a meeting for 10 o'clock this morning, but Horne and Harker were not present at that time, so Chairman Anderson adjourned the meeting until 12 o'clock, thereby preventing the possibility of any further action by the old board or the decapitation of any more its appointees.

ANDERSON RE-ELECTED.

The first act of the new board was to elect James H. Anderson as chairman of the board to succeed himself. JONES RE-INSTALLED.

The second act was the revocation of the act of the old board in removing William R. Jones, Jr., from the position of superintendent of the county in-firmary. The resolution, introduced by the unanimous vote of the board, is
